Along the beautiful scenery of West Vancouver Bay Sea-to-Sky Highway, arrive at Horseshoe Bay and take the ferry to Hooping Nanning, starting the journey to the inland South Bay. Away from the hustle and bustle of the city. Being in contact with the beautiful and pure natural environment nearby, taking several ferries that made the body and mind feel comfortable, finally completed the dream of crossing the other shore. Just like the road of life, there are twists and turns and smooth paths. In addition to enjoying different scenery at any time on the ferry, you can also explore countless charming bays along the way, explore prehistoric fossils, and taste fresh clams and oysters. There are many beautiful parks, crystal clear lakes and wildlife as far as the eye can see.

The famous beach city and the beautiful Milner Gardens are surrounded by ancient forests. So wild and natural. Nanaimo is the second largest city on Vancouver Island. Neck Point Park is really special. The park is connected to the igneous rocks in the water. It really looks like a long neck. The bay scenery is poetic, romantic and dreamy, attracting countless couples to spend the evening and sunset. The world-famous mural town, Saminas is a colorful world like a fairy tale, beautiful, and the totem wood carvings that represent Indian spiritual culture add a lot of regional characteristics. In the Suwinigan Lake District, you can see one of the world's largest wooden railway supports (kinsol trestle). Arrive in Victoria, the largest city on Vancouver Island, in the afternoon and experience British-style afternoon tea at the Empress Hotel, or visit landmarks such as the Baroque Castle Parliament Building, a fine art building, the unique Royal Museum, and the Wax Museum.
