Wells Gray Provincial Park is the second largest park in British Columbia. Most of the landforms are canyons. They were carved by nature during the volcanic and glacial periods, creating many waterfalls. Therefore, it is also known as Waterfall Park. Walk in the ancient forest and enjoy the spectacular scenery that is as natural as a miraculous workmanship.

Mount Robertson is the highest point in the Rocky Mountains and is shrouded in mystery all year round. It has peaks, glaciers, waterfalls, canyons, quartzite caves and fossils, as well as rare and endangered species. Its natural beauty, geology and ecological conditions have been listed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

Jasper National Park has the largest number of lakes in the Canadian Rockies. There are rainbow trout and Brook trout in Medicine Lake, making it a paradise for anglers. Many wild animals are often found nearby, such as grizzly bears, black bears, white-tailed deer, elk, wolves, goats, marmots, etc. Maligne Lake is the most beautiful and artistic lake in the Rocky Mountains. It is a high-altitude deep-water lake. There is a spiritual island in the lake, and you can take a cruise to wander among the mountains and rivers. Pyramid Lake is the heart of Jasper, shaped like a kidney, and is a prime spot for canoeing and picnicking. Athabasca Falls is so majestic that its formations are made of quartzite. The air nearby is the highest in Canada, with extremely strong negative ions. When taking photos, it makes people feel more comfortable physically and mentally, and has the effect of improving cardiopulmonary function.

Accommodation: Chateau Lake Louise

Lake Louise, a sapphire gem in the Rocky Mountains, is like a fairyland on earth, with pleasant scenery that makes people forget to leave. The beauty of Moraine Lake was once the background of the Canadian twenty-dollar bill, which undoubtedly demonstrates its special status. Especially being surrounded by ten connected peaks adds to the power of many stars over the moon. The lake is as green as green and picturesque. Castle Mountain is the head of the mountains. It has a special situation and has the demeanor of a benevolent person. Banff is the highest tourist town in the world. There is an endless stream of tourists in all seasons, and the exquisite fine jewelry attracts the public's attention. Lake Minnewanka is called an elf lake by the Indians and has its own magical legend. The Emerald Lake is the most naturally pure, warm and tranquil, with clear water. As the name suggests, it shows its charm like emerald.

Accommodation: Three Valley Lake Chateau

Mileage: Lake Louise — Moraine Lake (8K) — Castle Mt (38K) — Banff (34K) — Minnewanka Lake (12.6K) — Emerald Lake (105K) — Rogers Pass (140K) — Three Valley Gap (90K)

The Three Gorges Lake Hotel is surrounded by mountains and rivers, and its particularly good location has made its creator, Gordon Beale, a legend. Started from scratch, it operates a variety of collections, including theaters, museums and ghost towns. It is a tourist accommodation environment that is deeply loved by Europeans. The farm developed by Secamus for Dutch immigrants, the dairy farming, cheese making and various ice creams of different flavors are very delicious and are very popular and praised by many tourists.

Follow Mara Lake through the towns of Anderby and Armstrong to the Vernon area, turn into the head of Okanagan Lake, and enjoy the road around the lake to the west, with panoramic views of the lakes and mountains, and arrive at Colonna, a paradise city known as the inland Shangri-La. It is a place with beautiful mountains, rivers and beautiful scenery. There are many wineries that are rich in fruit, and golf courses are visible everywhere. If it is the fruit harvest season, you can go to the orchards to experience the joy of picking fruits or choose a winery to try the joy of ice wine. You may encounter water monsters!
