The world-famous Cowboy Festival holds various cowboy competitions in Calgary for nearly ten days every July from the Fourth of July to the Bastille Day of France. Starting from Cowboy City, the endless grassland stretches out as far as the eye can see. It reminds people of the old song about wilderness scenery: "This grassland is so beautiful. The high white clouds cross the sky. Watching the white clouds drifting and the shadow of the Rocky Mountains, it is really a beautiful scenery in front of you." 』 Then arrive at the famous town of Banff, which has exquisite handicrafts, Sulfur Mountain Hot Springs and cable cars, Bow River Falls, Surprise Point, strange-shaped rocks and other special attractions.

Banff National Park is listed as a World Cultural Heritage by UNESCO. The beautiful landscapes, mountain canyons and beautiful lakes in the park are like a wonderland on earth. The sapphire Lake Louise of the Rocky Mountains, the mirror-green Moraine Lake, and even the background image made with an early twenty-dollar Canadian dollar are enough to show its beauty. You can also explore the high-altitude Lake Angliss and Quiet Lake along the mountain trails of Lake Louise. Takakawa Falls in Yoho National Park is also known as the most beautiful waterfall in the Rocky Mountains.

Jasper is named for its many beautiful lakes. Among them, Medicine Lake is rich in rainbow trout and Brook trout. Grizzly bears, black bears, white-tailed deer, elk, wolves, goats, rock rats and other animals are often found in the lake area. Bald eagles and ospreys also often live in this area, which is also a paradise for anglers. The scenery of Maligne Lake is comparable to that of Lake Louise. There is a Spirit Island standing in the lake. You can rent a cruise or canoe to paddle to Spirit Island. Maligne Lake is also the largest lake in Jasper National Park. It has high altitude and deep water, making it one of the fishing resorts. Maligne Canyon is a marble canyon, up to 50 meters deep, with streams and waterfalls below. The rocks have been eroded by rivers and glaciers to look like thousand-feuille cakes.

Accommodation: Fairmont Hotel Macdonld

In Edmonton, the capital of Alberta, the Parliament Building is full of French art style. The stained glass windows were unveiled by Queen Elizabeth II personally on Queen Victoria's birthday in 2005. The building is more than a hundred years old, but it is still beautiful and majestic. West Edmonton once had the world's largest shopping mall, which was nearly 20 football fields in size and contained an aquatic swimming pool that could accommodate up to 3,000 people. Although it was replaced by Beijinjinyuan Shopping Center in 2004, it is still one of the top five shopping malls in the world. It has a history of 28 years and a total of more than 23,000 employees. It is still the largest shopping mall in North America. Red Deer, named after the Red Deer River, is the third largest province in Alberta and is the center of petrochemical industry and agriculture.
