Early in the morning, we headed east along the Canadian National Highway, passing through the Lower Mainland, grassy farmland and fertile basins of the Greater Vancouver area, and arrived at Hope Town, the former gold mining powerhouse. It was once the filming location for many Hollywood movies. After a short break, we continued to the Shangri-La city of Colonna, known as the fruit capital. There are many wineries and vineyards everywhere. This is one of the ice wine brewing areas in the world. Its unique taste and excellent flavor have fascinated many tourists. Vernon is a city with a prosperous food processing industry. It is also the birthplace of Okragan Lake and Kalamaka Lake. It has many beautiful beaches.

Fiquel is the first entry point for inland ferries and is the gateway to Lake Yale. Between Nabocas, you will find many osprey nests perched on top of telephone poles. Whenever summer and autumn are the time when they show off their skills in catching fish, sometimes you can see such a rare sight with your own eyes. There are Bashe Lake and Sanmit Lake when you arrive in Nacopos. Both lakes have beautiful beaches, waterfront trails, calm lakes, and beautiful scenery. McDonald's Creek Provincial Park has beautiful scenery that makes people nostalgic, and Slocum has Bonnington Dam and Falls, one of many dams on the Kootenay River. Nelson's Kapok Falls is a rare sight, as beautiful as thin wings dancing in layers.

Bow River Falls was the filming location for the Hollywood movies of the 1950s, The River Goes East. At Surprise Point, you can see the Castle Hotel standing in the jungle. The strange-shaped sandstone rock composition is extremely hard and has a special shape, towering majestically. During the Indian period, Lake Minnewanka was called Spirit Lake. A dam was built to provide the drinking water needs of the Banff area, and its beautiful scenery remains unabated. The clear water of Moraine Lake lingers. This beautiful scenery was used as the background image of the early Canadian $20, which shows how beautiful it is. Lake Louise is a treasure of the Rocky Mountains. It is known as a sapphire. Its beautiful mountains and waters are like a fairyland, which has attracted countless tourists' praise. As the name suggests, Emerald Lake not only has precious scenery, but also has holiday villas nearby, making it feel very warm. Although Gong Lake is located on the roadside, the color of the lake is often seen in the shadow of the lake. Biduo Lake is shaped like a bright blue glove, and its color is indescribable.
