Morning

New York Morning Tour New York Morning Tour

First go to New York City Hall, which has a history of more than 200 years. It is the oldest active city hall in the United States. This ancient Greek-style marble building is simple and elegant and is an outstanding representative of New York's Greek Renaissance architectural style. Then check out the famous Brooklyn Bridge, stroll across this ancient suspension bridge, and admire the beautiful Manhattan skyline at the intersection of the river and the sea. After lunch, go to Chinatown, which is full of rustic flavor, and Little Italy, which is full of strong Italian style. Enjoy the strong atmosphere of human fireworks in the lively neighborhoods~ Then go to visit the sister bridge that stands side by side with the Brooklyn Bridge - the Manhattan Bridge. Although it is slightly less famous, the latter is equally spectacular. Finally, we came to the SOHO trendy neighborhood, located in midtown Manhattan. This neighborhood is both fashionable and artistic. Whether it’ s Internet celebrity graffiti that pursues individuality, trendy boutiques, or neighborhood buildings with a sense of the times, this neighborhood can satisfy all your imagination!

All day

Today, we will start from New York, first heading to Watkins Glen State Park, which has beautiful scenery, canyons and waterfalls. Then arrive at the waterfalls and visit Cascades National Park, overlooking the "American Falls", "Horseshoe Falls" and "Bridal Veil Falls". The water surges thousands of miles, and the thunder rolls. Experience the majestic momentum in person, just like thousands of horses galloping.

Itinerary:

Departing from New York → Watkins Glen State Park + Finger Lakes (at your own expense, 90 minutes, the trip will go to the Corning Glass Center after the park closes)→ Hotel → Niagara Falls Night View Tour (at your own expense, 90 minutes)

Special instructions:

1. Watkins Glen State Park is a summer itinerary, which is carried out after the canyon opens, usually from April to October every year.

2. Since buses require parking fees and permits to enter Watkins Glen State Park, an additional fee of $15/person is required. In the event of stormy weather, the company reserves the right to change or cancel the attraction for safety reasons.

3. If Watkins Glen State Park is closed, the itinerary will be adjusted to visit the Corning Glass Center (at your own expense).

Afternoon

Watkins Glen State Park Watkins Glen State Park

Watkins Glen is located in the Finger Lakes region of New York State in the United States. It is a layered rock geology that has been eroded by glaciers and streams, forming a unique landform. There are more than a dozen waterfalls along the approximately two miles of canyon trails. There are excellent canyon trails, waterfalls that can be appreciated up close, and pleasing natural scenery. It provides tourists with an excellent photo spot and is known as the "Millennium Valley."

Finger Lakes

The Finger Lakes are located in northwest New York State and are a scenic spot composed of up to 14 long and narrow lakes. They are named because they are arranged vertically from south to north, shaped like fingers. Many Hollywood stars own vacation villas or estates here. The red leaves here in autumn are also very famous. You can overlook the entire lake area from the heights of Cornell University. The red leaves all over the mountains and the blue lake water echo each other, which is intoxicating.

The Corning Museum of Glass

The Corning Glass Center, which is well-known at home and abroad, is located in Corning, a unique and quaint town in upstate New York. Despite its small size, it is the center of the American glass industry. Corning's glass and porcelain are as well-known in the world as Jingdezhen porcelain is in China. Corning Glass Center can be said to be a magical world of glass. There are about 100,000 pieces of fine glass and artistically carved glass on display at the Corning Glass Center. These exquisite glass products are either colorful or crystal clear, dazzling and dazzling. The Glass Center is not only a glass museum, but also a factory for glass strengthening, glassware, and handicrafts. It is also a shop selling glass and crystal products, such as sunglasses, necklaces, pins, etc.

Evening

Niagara Falls Night Tour Niagara Falls Night Tour

During the trip we will go to[One garden, two islands and three waterfalls], go deep into the Niagara Falls Park, and watch a wide variety of exotic flowers and trees up close; stay on two islands - Goat Island and Moon Island, and appreciate the magnificence of Thunder God's Water from multiple angles in the dark night There are three major waterfalls in one place - Horseshoe Falls, Bridal Veil Falls and American Falls. Feel the majestic momentum of nature presented by waterfalls with different faces under the colorful neon lights. At this time, don’ t forget to pick up the camera in your hand and take a photo with them.

After a series of activities in Niagara Falls, we will head to Toronto, the capital of the Canadian province of Ontario in North America and the largest city in Canada. Currently, Toronto's low crime rate, clean environment, high living standards, and tolerance of diverse cultures have made the city listed as one of the most livable cities in the world by multiple economic think tanks.

Itinerary:

Niagara Falls (Canada)→ Niagara IMAX Movie (Canada) (optional, 30 minutes)→ Clarion Falls Viewing Boat (optional, 30 minutes)→ Waterfall viewing at Tianlong Tower, lunch (including Tianlong Tower lunch, 120 minutes)→ Toronto → Toronto Cruise (optional, 60 minutes)→ CN Tower (at your own expense, 60 minutes) → Ripley's Aquarium (at your own expense, 60 minutes) → Toronto Chinatown (60 minutes, you can enjoy traditional Chinese food at your own expense)

Special instructions:

1. During the maple leaf season from September to October, guests who join the tour will have the opportunity to go to the Ontario Legislature Building to view the maples.

2. If the Toronto cruise is closed, the attraction will be replaced by Casa Loma (own expense, 60 minutes).

Morning

IMAX: Niagara (Canada side)

See the story of Niagara Falls up close at the IMAX Theater! These are stories you will never forget! Movie screens are 4,500 times larger than regular television screens. 12,000 watts of floor-vibrating digital surround sound give you an immersive movie-watching experience. Whether you're climbing over Niagara Falls, climbing Mount Everest, or speeding around Indy at 230 miles per hour, IMAX movies are sure to take you to places you've never been!

Hornblower Niagara Cruise

The Bugle Falls Cruise has always been the most famous way to have fun in Niagara Falls. Put on a thin blue raincoat and board the white double-decker cruise ship for the most exciting waterfall trip. The horn, which looks quite historical but is very sturdy, will drive bravely from the river bank to the waterfall and enter the horseshoe shape of the waterfall to circle. The abundant river water rushes towards you like thousands of horses galloping. Suddenly, the strangers on the boat seem to have become the same people on the same boat. In the hazy water, you can personally feel the momentum and power of the waterfall. After breaking away from the storm circle, the horn is like a boat returning from a disaster, drifting staggeringly towards the American Falls. When the weather is clear, the sun's rays and water vapor interweave to create a long and beautiful rainbow, which is projected in front of the veritable "Rainbow Bridge".

Niagara Falls Water Curtain Passage Journey Behind the Falls

This is one of Niagara's oldest tourist hotspots. An elevator descends 125 feet and a short tunnel leads to two outdoor observation decks and two entrances directly behind the falls. Walk to the upper and lower observation decks and experience the magic of Horseshoe Falls from right below the falls. You'll experience the spectacular sight of one-fifth of the world's fresh water rushing into the basin below. The height at the foot of the observation deck may make you "get wet" or amazed, but don't forget to experience this. One-fifth of the world's fresh water, Niagara Falls, which must be experienced once in a lifetime, will appear in front of you!

Skylon Tower for Waterfall Viewing

The Waterfall Sky Dragon Tower allows visitors to better view the panoramic view of Niagara Falls. It is the closest tower to the Mallee Falls. More than 100 meters high. Half of the elevator leading to the observation deck at the top of the tower is covered with glass, so you can enjoy the scenery while the elevator ascends and descends. The tower houses a theater and games, and the top floor is a revolving restaurant. You will have the opportunity to enjoy a delicious meal in the famous 360-degree revolving restaurant or the top buffet western restaurant. With panoramic views, 775 feet above Niagara Falls, whether it's a romantic meal for two or a family vacation, relax and enjoy the luxurious dining environment and world-class cooking. Free admission to the Ride-to-the-Top and Indoor/Outdoor observation decks Niagara Falls is available during dining.

Afternoon

Toronto Sightseeing Harbor Tour

Climb aboard a two-decker Great Lakes steamship for an exhilarating 60-minute tour of Toronto's Inner Harbor and enjoy beautiful views of Toronto from the harbor! Enjoy a 60-minute sightseeing harbor tour to explore the sights of Toronto Harbor and gain a unique perspective on the city, as well as the Toronto skyline and other sights.

Casa Loma Royal Castle

Located high up overlooking the city of Toronto, it is a century-old castle with 98 rooms. It is a representative of fantastic architecture and seems to take you back to the Edwardian era. You can quietly walk through the secret passages that wind and extend throughout the castle, visit the beautifully decorated rooms with the mark of the times, and explore the legendary memories that have been accumulated for hundreds of years; you can also go up to the tower to enjoy the charming and unique scenery of Toronto. Many Hollywood movies have been filmed here, and many charity events and high-society parties are often held here. The first-floor hall has a beautiful plaster ceiling and intricate carvings, inspired by Elizabethan palaces.

Canadian National Television Tower CN Tower

The CN Tower is a symbol of Toronto and a must-see attraction for tourists in Toronto. From top to bottom, it consists of four parts: the base, the observation deck, the "sky cover" and the antenna tower. The most unique feature of the TV Tower is the glass floor built on the observation deck. This fan-shaped glass floor is 342 meters high. Almost every tourist who tries to set foot on the moon is eager to try it, and walks up with an "adventurous" mood to challenge himself.

Ripley's Aquarium of Canada

Ripley's Aquarium of Canada is located in downtown Toronto, Canada, just southeast of the famous CN Tower. It is Canada's largest aquarium. There are more than 16,000 species of marine life here, and it features the longest moving passage of 96 meters, set in a transparent sightseeing tunnel, above the head is a lagoon including sharks, large rays and their habitats. Visitors will be inspired to care for and protect the precious water world while having fun.

Toronto's Chinatown

Toronto's Chinatown has gradually grown in size since 1878, when overseas Chinese from Singapore, Vietnam and other places settled here. At present, there are many Chinese restaurants, shops, fruit and vegetable markets, massage centers, etc. here, and the decoration and style are quite Chinese. Every Spring Festival is a very lively time in Chinatown. The characteristic dragon dance parade is held to the accompaniment of noisy gongs and drums, which is very lively. The dragon boat race held on Lake Ontario every June has become a major summer entertainment event in Toronto.

D5 10/11(day) Ottawa - Car - Montreal

Today's meal	breakfast:- Lunch:- dinner:-

Depart from Toronto in the morning and head to the Thousand Islands in Canada. It is located on the St. Lawrence River between Canada and the United States and is dotted with 1,864 independent islands. Board the yacht and pass by the most famous and charming scenic spots of Thousand Islands. Head to Ottawa, a famous political and commercial city where the fire of peace never goes out. Then head north to Montreal, the largest French-speaking city in eastern Canada, the most French-cultural city, known as the "Little Paris of North America".

Itinerary:

Toronto → Thousand Islands → Canadian Thousand Islands Cruise (at your own expense, 60 minutes, the itinerary will no longer go after the cruise ship is closed)→ Ottawa → Montreal → Montreal Double-decker Sightseeing Bus (at your own expense, 60 minutes, the sightseeing bus is closed due to cold weather and other reasons, the itinerary will no longer go)→ Notre Dame Church in Montreal (20 minutes)→ Old Montreal (90 minutes)→ Hotel

Morning

Thousand Islands Cruise Canada

The water from Lake Ontario flows out into the St. Lawrence River. There are 1,865 large and small natural islands and 1 artificial island in the bay of the St. Lawrence River. It is called Thousand Island Lake and is also called the St. Lawrence Islands National Park. Thousand Island Lake cruise allows you to enjoy the infinite scenery, and you will see various traces left over from history on the edge of the island. You can take a cruise to cruise among the islands and admire the mansions and islands of different sizes and postures.

Mont Tremblant

Mont-Tremblant, a Canadian maple viewing resort known as "Little Banff in Eastern Canada", is a good place to appreciate Canada's unique maple leaf scenery. You will enjoy various European-style buildings, marvelous natural scenery, and experience various modern entertainment facilities. The top of the mountain is a great place to enjoy the view, framing the beauty of Canada's green trees and mountain lakes.

Afternoon

Montreal Double Decker Sightseeing Bus Double Decker Montreal

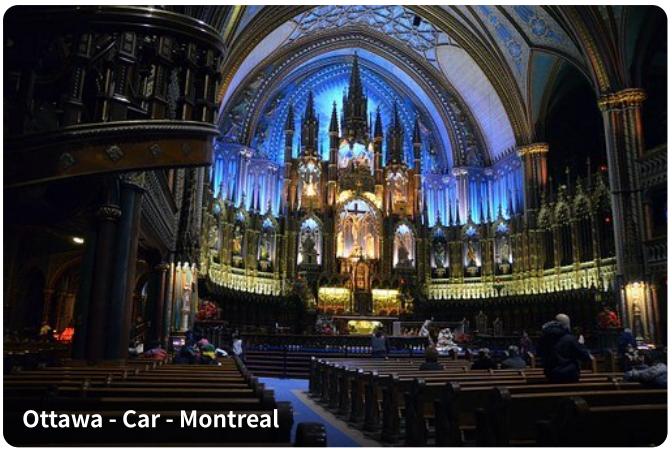

Taking a double-decker sightseeing bus is one of the best ways to explore Montreal. The bus is divided into two floors, and the upper floor is open-air designed to meet your needs for city sightseeing. The itinerary covers some worth-checking attractions in the city such as Notre Dame Cathedral in Montreal. You can enjoy the beauty of multicultural integration freely and comfortably. Every scenery, every sound and every explanation may bring you hidden surprises!

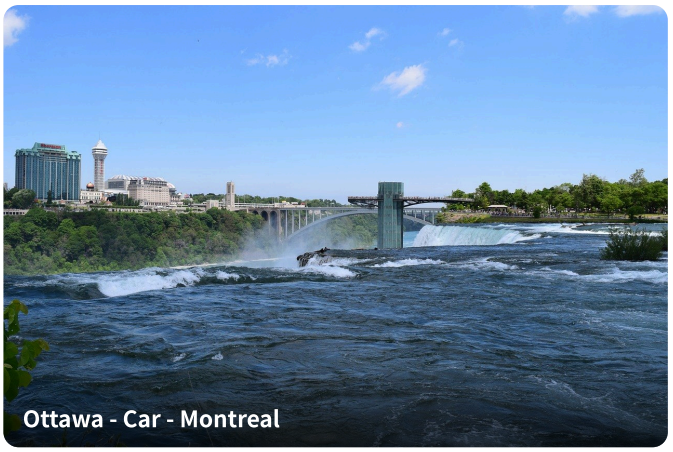

Notre-Dame Basilica of Montreal

Montreal's Notre Dame Cathedral, known as Canada's "Notre Dame de Paris", was built in 1829 and is located in the center of Montreal's Old Town. It is the largest Catholic church in North America. The bell on its west bell tower is also one of the largest bells in North America. There are two tall and majestic towers standing on the front of the church, which look like a Gothic-style castle. The middle part is slightly lower, with a Holy Cross directly above it, and a golden statue of the Virgin below making the three pointed-arch doors in front of the door more solemn and mysterious. The wedding of famous singer Celine Dion was held here~

Old Montreal Old Montreal

Old Montreal refers to the Old Port on the north bank of the St. Lawrence River and an area nearby. It is the oldest neighborhood in Montreal. The Old City of Montreal, which reveals a strong European flavor, is a must-visit attraction for tourists. The churches and ancient stone houses with rich European characteristics in the ancient city seem to be taking advantage of the changing seasons to continue to detail the human changes it has seen over the past few hundred years. What is waving in the air is the cultural atmosphere and petty bourgeoisie sentiment!

D6 10/12(one) Montreal - Car - Quebec

Today's meal	breakfast:- Lunch:- dinner:-
Today's accommodation	Holiday Inn Express & Suites Saint-Hyacinthe or Hôtel le Dauphin Saint-Hyacinthe or similar

All day

Today we will go to Quebec, a city full of French feelings. British and French road signs and signboards can be seen everywhere. Pedestrians on the road are also dressed in a European style. Open-air cafes, romantic and warm, cobblestone pedestrian streets, where you can buy art, King Louis Square, it feels like you are in Paris.

Itinerary:

Montreal → Quebec Castle (at your own expense, 60 minutes)→ French French meal in Quebec (at your own expense, 75 minutes)→ Tour of the Old Town of Quebec (at your own expense, 60 minutes. Including the appearance of the Place de France, the Chateau Frontenac Hotel, the Parliament Building, the appearance of the Cathedral of Notre-Dame de Quebec)→ Little Champlain Street in the Old Town (60 minutes)→ Monterrance Falls + Cable Car (at your own expense, 60 minutes)→ Hotel

Morning

La Citadelle, Quebec City

The Chateau du Québec is the secondary official residence of the Canadian monarch and the Governor-General of Canada. Located on Cap Diamant, adjacent to the Plains of Abraham in Quebec City, Quebec, it is Canada's oldest military structure and is part of the fortifications of Quebec City, one of only two cities in North America still surrounded by fortifications, the other being Campeche, Mexico. The castle is part of the National Historic Site of Quebec, Canada. The chateau is located in the Old Quebec Historic District, which was designated a World Heritage Site in 1985 and receives approximately 200,000 visitors annually.

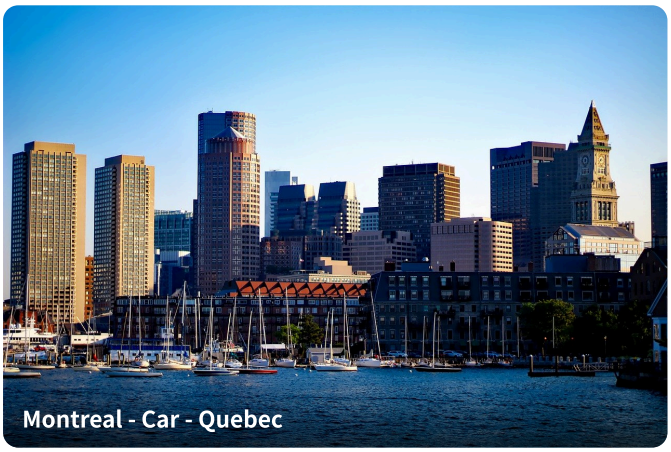

Afternoon

Old Quebec

Quebec is the only city in North America that has a walled fortress. The mottled old city walls tell the story of the unknown past. Centered on the Place Royale, there are many narrow streets and ancient buildings such as the Knights Inn and the Victory Church from the city's founding period. At the same time, it is one of the key areas for the colonization and development of modern America. It was listed as a world cultural heritage in 1985.

Montmorency Falls Montmorency Falls

Montemorency Falls is known as the Crystal Falls. The waterfall is very powerful because it has a drop of 83 meters, which is 1.5 times that of Niagara Falls. A large amount of water pours from the steep cliff straight into the St. Lawrence River, making a deafening sound. The momentum is quite majestic.

All day

“If you love him, please take him to New York, because that is heaven; if you hate him, please take him to New York, because that is hell. ”This line from the TV series "Beijingers in New York" evokes everyone's infinite reverie about New York. We will pass through the rows of high-rise buildings and savor the prosperity and vicissitudes of New York, the world's largest city.

Itinerary:

Trinity Church, New York (outside)→ Wall Street (25 minutes)→ Wall Street Copper Bull (take photos)→ World Trade Center Observation Deck (optional, 70 minutes)→ Statue of Liberty Island Cruise (optional, 60 minutes)→ USS Intrepid Aircraft Carrier (optional, 60 minutes)→ Times Square (20 minutes) → Free time on Fifth Avenue (100 minutes, you can go to Central Park by yourself, or go to MOMA New York Museum of Modern Art at your own expense) → Madame Tussauds New York (at your own expense, 60 minutes)

Morning

Trinity Church New York

Trinity Church of New York is an old parish church of the Episcopal Diocese of New York. It was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1976 and stands on Wall Street, a city full of tall buildings. Surrounded by skyscrapers, this Gothic-style church stands out, and a small cemetery inside the church is quiet and peaceful. In addition, to commemorate the damage the church suffered from the 9/11 terrorist attacks, there is a red branch-shaped artwork next to the church, praying for peace.

Wall Street Wall Street

New York Wall Street is the name of a street from Broadway Avenue to the East River in the southern part of Manhattan, New York City. It is less than one mile long and only 11 meters wide. It is world-famous as the financial center of the United States. The skyscrapers on both sides of the street are home to some of the major financial institutions in the United States. The New York Stock Exchange, Federal Reserve Bank, trust companies, etc. are concentrated here. Among them, the Federal Hall opposite the New York Stock Exchange is the swearing-in place of the founding father Washington.

Wall Street Copper Bull Charging Bull

The Wall Street Copper Bull is a 5-meter-long copper bull statue weighing 6.3 tons. It is a symbol of "strength and courage." As long as the Copper Bull exists, the stock market will always remain a "bull" market. Every day, countless tourists compete to take photos with the copper bull. In order to pray for good luck, the copper bull is also touched and shiny.

Liberty Cruise

Take a one-hour cruise on the Hudson River on the Statue of Liberty Island Cruise, during which you will see the Manhattan skyline and scenery on both sides of the Hudson River, overlooking the Empire State Building and the World Trade Center. The cruise ship sails slowly by the Statue of Liberty, and you can clearly see the Statue of Liberty wearing a radiant crown, holding the torch of freedom high, and holding the Declaration of Independence in her hand. The majestic and eye-catching sight symbolizes the American people's lofty ideals of freedom and their yearning and pursuit of a better life.

One World Trade Center Observatory

Building 1 of the New World Trade Center Center, also known as the "Freedom Tower", is located on the site of the original World Trade Center that collapsed during the 9/11 attacks. At 1,776 feet, the World Trade Center is the tallest building in the United States and the third tallest building in the world. This height was set to commemorate the signing of the American Declaration of Independence in 1776. When guests arrive, a large video board will sequentially play welcome messages in various languages, and their hometowns will be specially marked on a dynamically generated world map. Experience the "Voices" activity and listen to the staff who built the building tell the stories behind them; the "Foundation" activity will allow guests to take a close look at the rock bed on which the building stands. From the global welcome center, to the guest elevator where you can experience virtual time-lapse, to the shocking video display, and finally the discovery floor with 360-degree views, every detail is a bonus for visiting here.

Afternoon

USS Intrepid aircraft carrier

This is a military and maritime history museum docked at Pier 86, displaying the USS Intrepid aircraft carrier and the USS Growler submarine. The Intrepid participated in the Pacific War of World War II, the Vietnam War, served as an anti-submarine aircraft carrier, and participated in the U.S. space program. In 1986, it was named a U.S. National Historic Landmark. The cockpit of the Intrepid is facing the Manhattan area with many high-rise buildings. Looking out from the command cabin of the cockpit, you can enjoy a unique street view of Manhattan.

Times Square Times Square

Times Square is a prosperous neighborhood in Manhattan, New York City, United States, known as the "Crossroads of the World." Various shopping malls and theaters are gathered near the square, making it a prosperous entertainment and shopping center. The commercial and financial atmosphere of advertising and high-tech artistic means are perfectly unified here. The dazzling neon lights at night reflect the strong fashionable urban characteristics of Manhattan. When you walk into Times Square, you are surrounded by colorful billboards and street performers with unique skills. Your ears are filled with advertising slogans and song MVs for various products, which shock everyone's heart. In fact, people have long said that you have not been to the United States without visiting New York, and you have not been to New York without visiting Times Square.

Fifth Avenue Fifth Avenue

Located in the heart of Manhattan Island, it is the essence of Manhattan Island shopping. It has now become the commercial, residential, cultural, shopping and tourism center of New York. The entire street covers many of New York's must-visit attractions and top department stores, as well as countless global luxury stores and flagship stores. It has everything from high-end custom clothing, jewelry, electronic products, etc., and is extremely luxurious, attracting tourists from all over the world every day.

Museum of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art

The Museum of Modern Art (MoMA) in New York, one of the world's most outstanding modern art collections built by the Rockefeller family in Manhattan, has many modern and contemporary avant-garde art exhibitions, covering all aspects of art, architecture, sculpture, film, design, etc. The most famous collections include Van Gogh's "Starry Night", Picasso's "Les Demoiselles d'Avignon", Monet's "Water Lilies", Dali's "The Persistence of Memory", Edvard Munch's "The Scream", etc. Not only that, the courtyard in the museum is also very beautiful. Looking out from the huge transparent floor-to-ceiling windows in the museum, you can see the modern and fashionable garden located among the skyscrapers, which has a unique flavor.

Madame Tussaud's Wax Museum New York

The museum includes movie stars, sports stars, famous musicians, singers, influential world leaders and historical figures. For example, you can take photos with Hollywood superstars Angelina Jolie and George Clooney. And Johnny Depp, too, pretending to kiss his face. You can also discuss scientific problems with Einstein, take a photo with Clinton, shake hands with George W. Bush, wave hello with Hillary Clinton, and even sit in Obama's Oval Office to sign the U.S. Constitution.

If you're brave enough, you might as well try the haunted house here. Finally, buy your favorite Q-version wax figure in the souvenir shop.
