Depart from Taipei City in the morning and drive to the Sun Moon Lake National Scenic Area located in the center of Taiwan.

Sun Moon Lake is the largest freshwater lake in Taiwan, bounded by Lalu Island. It is named after its unique topography. The east side is shaped like a sun wheel and the west side is shaped like a moon hook, hence the name Sun Moon Lake. The lake here is clear and green, surrounded by mountains, and the mountains and rivers correspond to each other. It also has unique human resources. The surrounding area is where Taiwan's original Thao people live.

After lunch, we took a bus to tour along the lake and visited the most famous attractions here: Ita Shao Pier, Ci'en Pagoda, Xuanzang Temple, Wenwu Temple, etc... The temple buildings located on the lakeside and mountain scenery have a special solemn atmosphere. Follow the explanation of the professional tour guide and slowly visit and experience it in depth. I believe it will bring you different spiritual feelings.

In the evening, enjoy the hotel facilities and spend a comfortable and peaceful night in a five-star hotel by the lake.

From the top floor of the building, you can see the entire Sun Moon Lake scenery, as if you are embracing the entire lake with your hands. Take a leisurely stroll here and savor the world-class scenery of Sun Moon Lake.

Then go to Kaohsiung, the most populous city in southern Taiwan and the second largest city in Taiwan. It is also a romantic seaport city.

Visit Fo Guang Shan, a solemn Buddhist temple founded by Master Hsing Yun in 1967. The most distinctive building in Fo Guang Shan is the huge golden statue of Amitabha Buddha that can be seen from miles away.

After visiting the Buddhist holy sites, the night is getting darker, and before you know it, it’ s time to fill your internal organs. Let’ s go to the most famous Liuhe Tourist Night Market in Kaohsiung to find food! After breakfast, head to the south of the border - Kenting, which is definitely one of the best seaside resorts in Taiwan; it is also a paradise for international surfing and snorkeling enthusiasts.

Kenting National Park is the first national park established in Taiwan. It is located on the south side of the Hengchun Peninsula at the southern tip of Taiwan. It is surrounded by the sea on three sides and is the only tropical area on the island of Taiwan. Because of its special terrain, rich flora and fauna, and marine ecology, it has always been a popular tourist destination for nationals. Let us take you to visit some popular attractions in Kenting today!

First of all, the first attraction we visited was Mao Bitou. This strange-shaped stone is naturally occurring. The coral reef rock was formed by repeated wave erosion over a long period of time. From a distance, it looks like a giant sitting cat, hence its name.

Then visit the Sail Rock. The old coral reef that rolled down from the nearby platform to the seaside looks like the sail of a ship from a distance, so it is called the Sail Rock. Some tourists think that when viewed up close, it looks like the head of former U.S. President Richard Nixon, so it is also called Nixon’ s head.

Next is a popular tourist attraction that Kenting travelers will not miss: Eluanbi Lighthouse, located at Eluanbi Cape, Pingtung County, and is the southernmost lighthouse on Taiwan's main island. In the mid-19th century, the Qing Dynasty was built under diplomatic pressure. During the Japanese colonial period, it was listed as one of the eight major tourist attractions in Taiwan.

Finally, we arrive at Longpan Park, which is a limestone platform eroded by rain. There is an entire vast grassland in the vast park, facing the Pacific Ocean. Here you can feel the sea breeze and overlook the endless ocean, allowing you to experience the passion of the ocean in the southernmost part of Taiwan.

Then, drive to Taitung via the Nanhui Highway, enjoying the beautiful scenery and taking a break along the way.

Stay at Taitung Zhiben five-star hot spring resort tonight to experience the charm of Zhiben Hot Spring Resort. The hot springs here are weakly alkaline sodium bicarbonate springs, which can effectively improve blood circulation and relieve fatigue. Now that you're here, don't forget to soak in the hot springs to completely relax your body and mind.

D4 4/9(Four) Taitung Zhiben—East Coast Scenic Area—Hualien—Yilan

Today's meal	Breakfast: included Lunch:- dinner:-
Today's accommodation	Jiaoxi Jingquan Hotel or Jiaoxi Royal Hotel (5*) or similar

After enjoying a rich breakfast, we will head to the East Coast National Scenic Area, the last most beautiful natural coastline in Taiwan. The first stop was Xiaoyeliu, which was named because of its varied sea erosion landscape, which resembles the Yehliu Geopark on the north coast. Then proceed to Sanxiantai, a representative scenic spot on the east coast. As long as you see the eight-arch sea-crossing pedestrian bridge, you will know you have arrived at your destination. In the early days, this was a place where the Amis people herded sheep, so Sanxiantai was also called Pisiran. Due to the distribution of strange rocks on the island, including three huge rocks, it is said that Lu Dongbin, Li Tieguai and He Xiangu once landed here to take a rest when the Eight Immortals were crossing the sea, hence the name. Its geology belongs to the Duluan Mountain agglomerate rock. It was originally a headland, but due to seawater erosion, the neck of the headland was gradually eroded and became an offshore island. The first light of dawn in Taiwan every day always falls on Sanxiantai. Therefore, every New Year's Day, people from all over the world always gather here to welcome the first light of dawn on Taiwan's main island. Then we came to Shitiping, a special rocky shore scenery carved by wind and sea water. It is named after the multi-layered stepped uplift rock sea steps. It is covered with potholes and coral reefs. Along the stone trail, you can have an in-depth observation of the topographic and geological landscapes of sea erosion trenches, sea erosion cliffs, sea erosion platforms, and raised coral reefs.

"The Kavalan Whiskey Distillery located in Yuanshan, Yilan, opened on December 4, 2008. The distillery team used clear water sources from the Central Mountains and Snow Mountains, and under the influence of Pacific water vapor and snow-capped mountain winds, they cultivated Kavalan whiskey with a mellow taste and charming flavor, and used "KAVALAN" as the brand to honor Yilan. When you come to Yilan, you can experience the manufacturing process of KAVALAN WHISKY first-hand, visit the orchid garden carefully cared for by Kingche Biotechnology, and sip the Brown coffee that Kingche is most proud of. Take a trip to Yilan, taste the aroma of whiskey, orchids and coffee, and share an unforgettable whiskey distillery trip with your dearest family and friends!"
