Detailed itinerary DETAILED ITINERARY

D1 10/7(three) Vancouver-Kamloops-Golden Town

Today's meal	breakfast:- Lunch: Lunch at a local restaurant Dinner: Dinner at a local restaurant
Today's accommodation	RAMADA Hotel or similar

In the morning, start your trip to the Rocky Mountains in a luxury tour vehicle. Passing through the Fraser Valley and many low road plains areas. Then follow the highway to Kamloops, a city famous for its American ginseng production, and have lunch at a local restaurant. After the meal, we went to the American ginseng field to see the planting process of American ginseng, and a dedicated person explained the varieties of American ginseng. Then proceed to Eagle's Pass among the lofty mountains; this is the connection point for the east-west crossing of the Pacific Railway, and it is also the place where the last nail of the railway was made. After the tour, we passed through the beautiful Three Gorges and the famous Ghost Town. Then pass through Rogers Pass, the highest point of Highway 1, and later arrive at Huanghuang Town; have dinner at a local restaurant.

D2 10/8(Four) Golden Town-Bow Lake-Columbia Glacier (Giant Snowmobile and Glass Bridge)-Banff

Today's meal	breakfast: breakfast Lunch: rich buffet dinner:-
Today's accommodation	ELK + AVENUE HOTEL hotel or similar

After breakfast, drive to Bow Lake along the Icefields Parkway, known as the most beautiful road in the world. Then proceed to the world-famous Columbia Glacier, where you will enjoy a rich buffet upon arrival. After the meal, you will be arranged to take a giant snowmobile (additional admission fee) to the 300-meter-deep Adabaska Glacier, allowing you to personally come into contact with the relics left over from the Second Ice Age. Once in a lifetime experience. Then visit the magnificent Glacier Glass Bridge adjacent to the Columbia Glacier, which cost tens of millions of dollars (additional admission fee); this is the best viewing location to appreciate the natural history of the Rocky Mountains. Group members can stroll on the 280-meter-high glass bridge, enjoy the most unique ecosystem in the world up close, and experience human wisdom and the wonders of nature first-hand. This attraction is not to be missed! Then proceed to Banff to visit Bow River Falls. Group members have plenty of time to freely roam and shop in the city center, or they can enjoy a hot spring bath at their own expense to relax and rejuvenate. Bring your own dinner.

D3 10/9(five) Banff-Lake Louise-Vernon/Salmon Bay

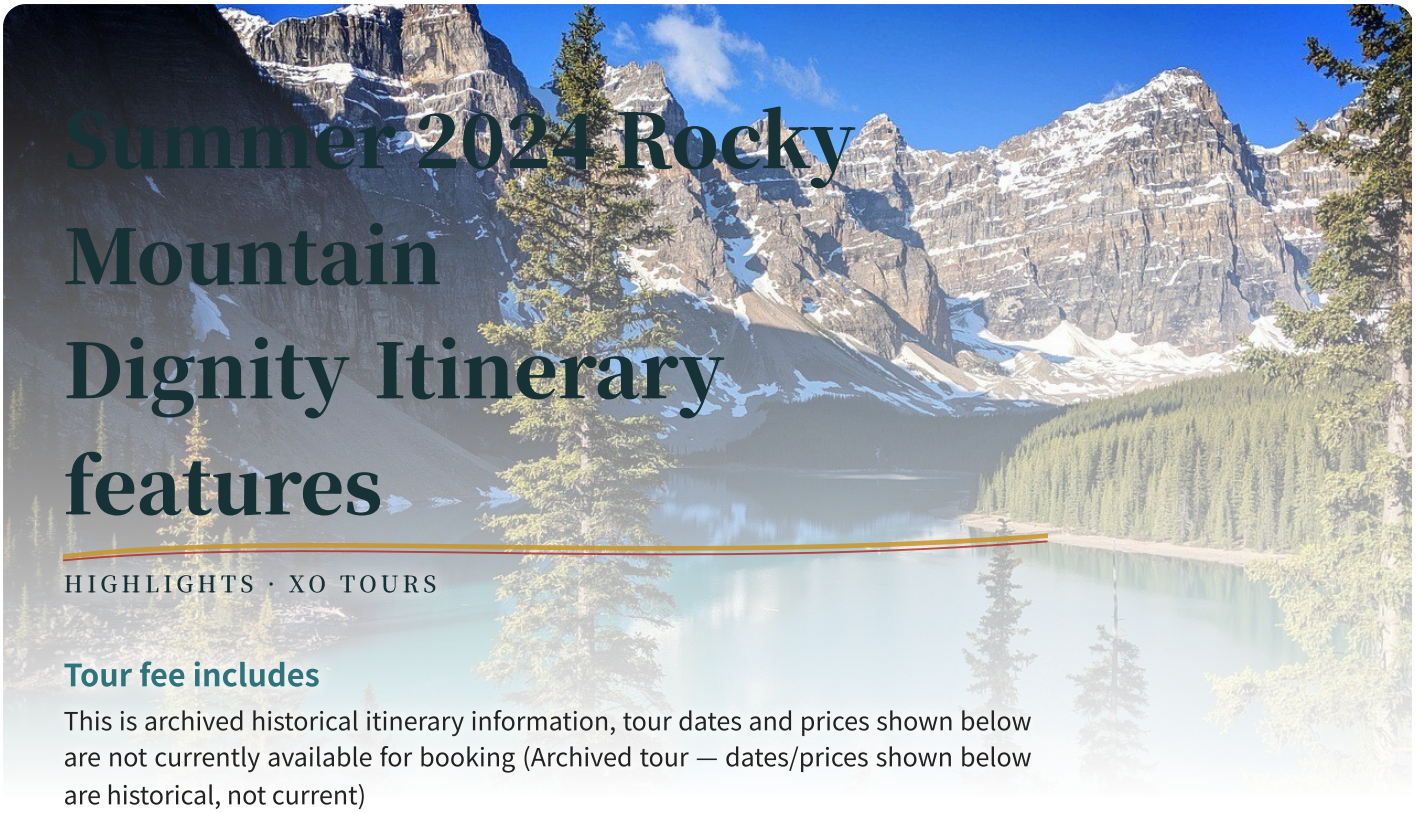

Today's meal	breakfast:- Lunch: Rich lunch Dinner: Dinner at a local restaurant
Today's accommodation	PRESTIGE HOTEL/HILLTOP INN hotel or similar

You will prepare your own breakfast that day, and then go to visit Lake Louise, known as the gem of the Rocky Mountains. You will have plenty of time to stroll around the lakeside, where you will see the majestic peaks and glaciers reflected on the mirror-like surface of the lake. Enjoying a sumptuous lunch at the Lake Louise Hotel Restaurant (catering included for group members) is truly one of life’ s great pleasures. After dinner, return to British Columbia via the Natural Bridge in Yoho National Park. Arrive in Vernon at dusk and have dinner at a local restaurant.

Today's meal	breakfast: breakfast Lunch:- dinner:-
Today's accommodation

After breakfast, go to visit the famous local honey farm and watch the daily life of worker bees outside the special glass. The owner of the garden also introduced it, which was of great educational significance. Then visit the Color Changing Lake. In different seasons every year, the lake water shows different colors of cyan, blue, green and indigo! Afterwards, we will visit the famous winery where the Queen hosted the state banquet, and a specialist will introduce the brewing process of red and white ice wine. Wine tasting techniques will be demonstrated, and group members will have the opportunity to taste various famous wines. Have lunch at a local restaurant, and then go to the famous Lake Monster, which is the haunt of OGOPOGO, the legendary lake monster in Indian mythology. Then we returned to Vancouver along the highway and arrived at 10:10pm.
