New York Morning Tour New York Morning Tour

First go to New York City Hall, which has a history of more than 200 years. It is the oldest active city hall in the United States. This ancient Greek-style marble building is simple and elegant and is an outstanding representative of New York's Greek Renaissance architectural style. Then check out the famous Brooklyn Bridge, stroll across this ancient suspension bridge, and admire the beautiful Manhattan skyline at the intersection of the river and the sea. After lunch, go to Chinatown, which is full of rustic flavor, and Little Italy, which is full of strong Italian style. Enjoy the strong atmosphere of human fireworks in the lively neighborhoods~ Then go to visit the sister bridge that stands side by side with the Brooklyn Bridge - the Manhattan Bridge. Although it is slightly less famous, the latter is equally spectacular. Finally, we came to the SOHO trendy neighborhood, located in midtown Manhattan. This neighborhood is both fashionable and artistic. Whether it’ s Internet celebrity graffiti that pursues individuality, trendy boutiques, or neighborhood buildings with a sense of the times, this neighborhood can satisfy all your imagination!

“If you love him, please take him to New York, because that is heaven; if you hate him, please take him to New York, because that is hell. ”This line from the TV series "Beijingers in New York" evokes everyone's infinite reverie about New York. We will pass through the rows of high-rise buildings and savor the prosperity and vicissitudes of New York, the world's largest city.

Itinerary:

Trinity Church, New York (outside)→ Wall Street (25 minutes)→ Wall Street Copper Bull (take photos)→ World Trade Center Observation Deck (optional, 70 minutes)→ Statue of Liberty Island Cruise (optional, 60 minutes)→ USS Intrepid Aircraft Carrier (optional, 60 minutes)→ Times Square (20 minutes) → Free time on Fifth Avenue (100 minutes, you can go to Central Park by yourself, or go to MOMA New York Museum of Modern Art at your own expense) → Madame Tussauds New York (at your own expense, 60 minutes)

Morning

Trinity Church New York

Trinity Church of New York is an old parish church of the Episcopal Diocese of New York. It was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1976 and stands on Wall Street, a city full of tall buildings. Surrounded by skyscrapers, this Gothic-style church stands out, and a small cemetery inside the church is quiet and peaceful. In addition, to commemorate the damage the church suffered from the 9/11 terrorist attacks, there is a red branch-shaped artwork next to the church, praying for peace.

Wall Street Wall Street

New York Wall Street is the name of a street from Broadway Avenue to the East River in the southern part of Manhattan, New York City. It is less than one mile long and only 11 meters wide. It is world-famous as the financial center of the United States. The skyscrapers on both sides of the street are home to some of the major financial institutions in the United States. The New York Stock Exchange, Federal Reserve Bank, trust companies, etc. are concentrated here. Among them, the Federal Hall opposite the New York Stock Exchange is the swearing-in place of the founding father Washington.

Wall Street Copper Bull Charging Bull

The Wall Street Copper Bull is a 5-meter-long copper bull statue weighing 6.3 tons. It is a symbol of "strength and courage." As long as the Copper Bull exists, the stock market will always remain a "bull" market. Every day, countless tourists compete to take photos with the copper bull. In order to pray for good luck, the copper bull is also touched and shiny.

Liberty Cruise

Take a one-hour cruise on the Hudson River on the Statue of Liberty Island Cruise, during which you will see the Manhattan skyline and scenery on both sides of the Hudson River, overlooking the Empire State Building and the World Trade Center. The cruise ship sails slowly by the Statue of Liberty, and you can clearly see the Statue of Liberty wearing a radiant crown, holding the torch of freedom high, and holding the Declaration of Independence in her hand. The majestic and eye-catching sight symbolizes the American people's lofty ideals of freedom and their yearning and pursuit of a better life.

One World Trade Center Observatory

Building 1 of the New World Trade Center Center, also known as the "Freedom Tower", is located on the site of the original World Trade Center that collapsed during the 9/11 attacks. At 1,776 feet, the World Trade Center is the tallest building in the United States and the third tallest building in the world. This height was set to commemorate the signing of the American Declaration of Independence in 1776. When guests arrive, a large video board will sequentially play welcome messages in various languages, and their hometowns will be specially marked on a dynamically generated world map. Experience the "Voices" activity and listen to the staff who built the building tell the stories behind them; the "Foundation" activity will allow guests to take a close look at the rock bed on which the building stands. From the global welcome center, to the guest elevator where you can experience virtual time-lapse, to the shocking video display, and finally the discovery floor with 360-degree views, every detail is a bonus for visiting here.

Afternoon

USS Intrepid aircraft carrier

This is a military and maritime history museum docked at Pier 86, displaying the USS Intrepid aircraft carrier and the USS Growler submarine. The Intrepid participated in the Pacific War of World War II, the Vietnam War, served as an anti-submarine aircraft carrier, and participated in the U.S. space program. In 1986, it was named a U.S. National Historic Landmark. The cockpit of the Intrepid is facing the Manhattan area with many high-rise buildings. Looking out from the command cabin of the cockpit, you can enjoy a unique street view of Manhattan.

Times Square Times Square

Times Square is a prosperous neighborhood in Manhattan, New York City, United States, known as the "Crossroads of the World." Various shopping malls and theaters are gathered near the square, making it a prosperous entertainment and shopping center. The commercial and financial atmosphere of advertising and high-tech artistic means are perfectly unified here. The dazzling neon lights at night reflect the strong fashionable urban characteristics of Manhattan. When you walk into Times Square, you are surrounded by colorful billboards and street performers with unique skills. Your ears are filled with advertising slogans and song MVs for various products, which shock everyone's heart. In fact, people have long said that you have not been to the United States without visiting New York, and you have not been to New York without visiting Times Square.

Fifth Avenue Fifth Avenue

Located in the heart of Manhattan Island, it is the essence of Manhattan Island shopping. It has now become the commercial, residential, cultural, shopping and tourism center of New York. The entire street covers many of New York's must-visit attractions and top department stores, as well as countless global luxury stores and flagship stores. It has everything from high-end custom clothing, jewelry, electronic products, etc., and is extremely luxurious, attracting tourists from all over the world every day.

Museum of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art

The Museum of Modern Art (MoMA) in New York, one of the world's most outstanding modern art collections built by the Rockefeller family in Manhattan, has many modern and contemporary avant-garde art exhibitions, covering all aspects of art, architecture, sculpture, film, design, etc. The most famous collections include Van Gogh's "Starry Night", Picasso's "Les Demoiselles d'Avignon", Monet's "Water Lilies", Dali's "The Persistence of Memory", Edvard Munch's "The Scream", etc. Not only that, the courtyard in the museum is also very beautiful. Looking out from the huge transparent floor-to-ceiling windows in the museum, you can see the modern and fashionable garden located among the skyscrapers, which has a unique flavor.

Madame Tussaud's Wax Museum New York

The museum includes movie stars, sports stars, famous musicians, singers, influential world leaders and historical figures. For example, you can take photos with Hollywood superstars Angelina Jolie and George Clooney. And Johnny Depp, too, pretending to kiss his face. You can also discuss scientific problems with Einstein, take a photo with Clinton, shake hands with George W. Bush, wave hello with Hillary Clinton, and even sit in Obama's Oval Office to sign the U.S. Constitution.

If you're brave enough, you might as well try the haunted house here. Finally, buy your favorite Q-version wax figure in the souvenir shop.

All day

Today, we will drive to Philadelphia, the City of Friendship, to visit Independence Historical Park and witness the history related to American independence. Then go to Washington, the political center and capital of the United States, where the White House and Congress are located. It also has many museums and is a famous tourist attraction.

Itinerary:

New York → Philadelphia → Independence National Historical Park (30 minutes)→ Washington, DC → Capitol Hill + U.S. National Archives in-depth tour (optional visit, 2 hours, including the appearance of the Supreme Court and the Library of Congress)→ The White House (outside, 30 minutes)→ Lincoln Memorial, Korean War Memorial Plaza, Vietnam War Memorial Wall (45 minutes)→ hotel

Special instructions:

If you are unable to enter the Congress due to special circumstances, the itinerary will be replaced by an in-depth tour of Washington, DC.

In-depth tour of Washington DC: Air Force Memorial (20 minutes, you can see the famous Pentagon) → Jefferson Memorial (20 minutes) → World War II Memorial (20 minutes) → Reflecting Pool (20 minutes)

Morning

Independence National Historical Park Independence National Historical Park

The land of Philadelphia witnessed the independence and birth of the United States. The National Independence Historical Park, built in the spirit of the American Revolution, contains some historical buildings related to the American Revolution and the founding of the country, and is known as "the most historic square mile in the United States." In the park, you can see the Independence Square surrounded by green trees, the tall milky white bell tower, and the bronze statues of the founding heroes standing on the lawn. The overall atmosphere here makes people feel solemn.

U.S. Capitol In-depth Tour

As the political center of the United States, Washington has many iconic political and cultural landscapes, such as the Capitol Building, the U.S. Supreme Court, etc. During the in-depth panoramic tour of Capitol Hill, we will enter the Capitol Building, the geometric center of Washington, D.C., walk in the gorgeous and exquisite corridors of Congress, listen to the stories behind every mural and statue, and gain a deep understanding of why this is the highest symbol of political power of the people, by the people, and for the people.

The National Archives of the United States

The National Archives contains precious documents, photographs, and video materials from various periods in American history. One of the most famous collections is the original founding documents written on parchment drafted in 1776 at the beginning of the founding of the United States, including three copies: the Declaration of Independence, the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights. There are also the "1863 Emancipation Proclamation" promulgated by Lincoln to liberate the black slaves during the Civil War, Nazi Germany's surrender document at the end of World War II, and the Watergate incident tapes that exposed Nixon and ultimately brought him down, etc. Among the many exhibits, I also saw a very cordial one - a photo of Premier Zhou meeting visiting US President Richard Nixon. Next to it was a banquet menu for Nixon. It was extremely simple, just a piece of white paper with the national emblem printed on it. The main course was the famous Peking duck, accompanied by several other simple dishes. This menu brought back by American guests became a true portrayal of China's national conditions at that time.

Washington D.C. In-depth Tour Washington D.C. In-depth Tour

First, we will come to the Air Force Memorial, which is composed of three arc-shaped steel columns more than 80 meters long. Its design is inspired by the three white smoke left in the air by the U.S. Air Force "Thunderbirds" aerobatic team during their aerobatic performances. Then we arrived at Lake Taitau to pay our respects to the Jefferson Memorial, which proposed the great idea of "all men are created equal." Then go to the World War II Memorial built to commemorate the 16 million American soldiers who served during World War II, and finally go to the Capitol Reflecting Pool.

The White House

The White House is a white neoclassical sandstone building covering an area of more than 73,000 square meters. It is composed of the main building and the east and west wings. The White House is the office and residence of successive U.S. presidents, and is also synonymous with the U.S. government. Many important decision-making bills in the United States are signed and issued by the president in the White House. George Washington, the founding father of the United States, once expressed his opinion on the construction of the official residence of the President of the United States: It must not be a palace, and it must not be luxurious, because the master who works here is a servant of the state.

Lincoln Memorial Lincoln Memorial

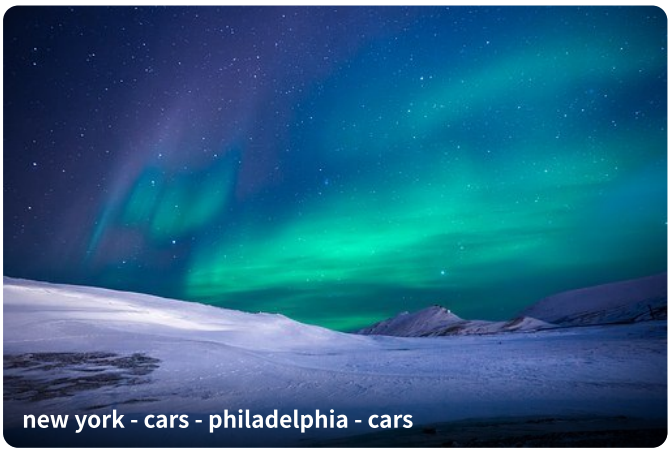

The Lincoln Memorial is a pure white ancient Greek temple-style building built to commemorate Abraham Lincoln, the 16th President of the United States. It is regarded as an eternal statue of the United States and a symbol of Washington. This is also the most famous gathering place for the pursuit of peace and democracy. It was here that Martin Luther King delivered his speech "I Have a Dream."

Korean War Veterans Memorial Plaza Korean War Veterans Memorial

The Korean War Memorial Plaza is located near the Lincoln Memorial on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. It was dedicated on July 27, 1995 to commemorate the sacrifices of the 5.8 million Americans who served in the U.S. military during the three years of the Korean War. The square consists of four parts. One part is a group of 19 life-size sculptures of American soldiers; the second part is a black granite memorial wall; the third part is a reflection pool; and the fourth part is a sidewalk on the left side of the mural, which lists the 22 countries that sent troops to the United Nations during the Korean War.

Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall Vietnam Veterans Memorial

The Vietnam War Memorial Wall is located in the north of the Lincoln Memorial. The monument is composed of a 500-foot-long V-shaped monument made of black granite. It is used to commemorate the American soldiers and generals who died in Vietnam during the Vietnam War. The gleaming black marble wall is engraved with the names of more than 57,000 American soldiers who died in the Vietnam War from 1959 to 1975 in order of the date of each person's death.

Corning Glass Center (at your own expense, 90 minutes)→ Watkins Glen State Park + Finger Lakes (at your own expense, 90 minutes, the trip will no longer go after closure)→ Hotel → Niagara Falls Night View Tour (at your own expense, 90 minutes)

Watkins Glen State Park is a summer itinerary that is carried out after the canyon opens, usually from April to October each year.

Afternoon

The Corning Museum of Glass

The Corning Glass Center, which is well-known at home and abroad, is located in Corning, a unique and quaint town in upstate New York. Despite its small size, it is the center of the American glass industry. Corning's glass and porcelain are as well-known in the world as Jingdezhen porcelain is in China. Corning Glass Center can be said to be a magical world of glass. There are about 100,000 pieces of fine glass and artistically carved glass on display at the Corning Glass Center. These exquisite glass products are either colorful or crystal clear, dazzling and dazzling. The Glass Center is not only a glass museum, but also a factory for glass strengthening, glassware, and handicrafts. It is also a shop selling glass and crystal products, such as sunglasses, necklaces, pins, etc.

Watkins Glen State Park Watkins Glen State Park

Watkins Glen is located in the Finger Lakes region of New York State in the United States. It is a layered rock geology that has been eroded by glaciers and streams, forming a unique landform. There are more than a dozen waterfalls along the approximately two miles of canyon trails. There are excellent canyon trails, waterfalls that can be appreciated up close, and pleasing natural scenery. It provides tourists with an excellent photo spot and is known as the "Millennium Valley."

Finger Lakes

The Finger Lakes are located in northwest New York State and are a scenic spot composed of up to 14 long and narrow lakes. They are named because they are arranged vertically from south to north, shaped like fingers. Many Hollywood stars own vacation villas or estates here. The red leaves here in autumn are also very famous. You can overlook the entire lake area from the heights of Cornell University. The red leaves all over the mountains and the blue lake water echo each other, which is intoxicating.

After the boat is closed, the itinerary will no longer go to the scenic spot. The specific closing time is subject to the actual notice of the scenic spot.

All day

Niagara Whirlpool State Park Niagara Whirlpool State Park

The Niagara Whirlpool is 125 feet deep and was formed by water erosion 7,500 years ago. It is located where the Niagara River suddenly turns from the northwest to the northeast. The rapid water flows back after changing the direction, forming a huge whirlpool. The park is very quiet, with barbecue grills and picnic tables. Standing on it, you can overlook the maelstrom below, which is very spectacular. There is a trail in the park that goes down to the bottom of the valley, and you can take a Zodiac boat into the maelstrom to experience the thrilling scene.

Old Fort Niagara State Park Old Fort Niagara State Park

The War Castle is a scenic spot with rich historical value. Before the independence of the United States, it existed at the mouth of the Niagara River from Lake Ontario to Lake Erie. Therefore, it played a very important role in the Indian and French wars, the American Revolutionary War, and the Anglo-American War. Behind it is the endless Lake Ontario, one of the five Great Lakes in the United States.

Maid of the Mist Waterfall Boat Maid of The Mist

The Maid of the Mist is America's most monumental cruise ship since 1846. There is no better way to experience Niagara Falls within the United States. Wear a blue raincoat and take the dreamy Maid of the Mist cruise, and experience for yourself the fresh mist produced by more than 2 million liters of water flowing down per second, the turbulent waves, and the rumbling roar of the waterfall. As a unique fleet of yachts, under the skilled command of their captains, they have sailed safely in the waves of the Niagara Gorge for more than 100 years, and have carried tens of millions of tourists directly into the hazy depths of the mist.

Cave of the Winds (Beautiful Land)

The entrance to the Cave of the Winds is on Goat Island, where there will be a small museum and a small cinema. You can then take an elevator down 53 meters to the bottom of the Niagara Gorge cave. Standing at the foot of the waterfall and looking up, you will see the waterfall flowing down with overwhelming momentum, which makes people feel passionate and resonate with nature.
