Ge Feng] 【Stone City】 Taxkorgan Stone City is located tens of meters north of Taxkorgan County. According to research, it is a relic of the Tang Dynasty. Tang Dynasty coins, Hotan documents, etc. have been unearthed in this city. Stone City is located in an advantageous geographical environment. There is a grassland under the city and several grasslands around it. In ancient times, several mountain roads from Kashgar, Yingisha, Yecheng, and Yarkand to the Pamir Plateau all converged here. From the west to several major mountains in Central Asia, such as Khunjerab Daba, Mingtiegeidaban, Wahqilidaban, etc., there are also natural roads accessible since then. The city is a strategically located castle on the ancient "Silk Road" and has been designated as a key cultural relic protection unit in the autonomous region. Although there are only ruins left in Stone City, there are snow peaks around it, grassy beaches and rivers below, and a strong Tajik ethnic customs, which is quite rugged and bold. 【Karakul Lake】 Karakul Lake is located at the foot of Muztagh Peak, the father of icebergs. The Subash grassland beside the lake is rich in water and grass, and there are flocks of cattle and sheep. "Karakuri" means "Black Sea" and is a mountain ice-carved moraine lake. The majestic and mysterious Muztagh Peak is reflected on the water surface. The snow-capped mountains and water are the same color, and the scenery is very charming. 【Golden Grass Stall】 Jincaotan Wetland Park is the leader, integrating ecology, folk customs and historical culture to create the "Beikananta" tourism brand. Through enriching tourism plans and infrastructure, it promotes the vigorous development of the tourism industry. Jincaotan is named for its abundant water plants and reflected sunset, making it a beautiful place that tourists yearn for. 【Muztagh Peak】 Muztagh Peak belongs to the alpine glacier terrain type. The mountain is steep, wide, round, and shaped like a steamed bun. It is covered with snow all year round. The snow line is about 5,200 meters above sea level. The glacier is located in an alpine area with a dry climate and a warm temperate continental climate. Muztagh Peak is known as the "Father of Glaciers". There are 128 modern glaciers in the area, with a total glacier area of 377.21 square kilometers, of which 8 glacier areas exceed 10 square kilometers. (Educational Architecture), Ancient City (Gaotai Dwellings), Tomb of Xiangfei】 →Aksu City 【Id Kah Mosque】 The Id Kah Mosque is an ancient building complex with strong national style and religious color. It is a model of Uyghur ancient architectural art. It has become a local symbol of the ancient city of Kashgar and is famous at home and abroad. During the Zhengtong period of the Ming Dynasty (1436-1449), the ruler of Kashgar, Shaksez Mirza, was later buried here. His descendants built a small mosque, which was the predecessor of the Id Kah Mosque. In ancient times, the mosque was also an important institution for spreading Islamic culture and cultivating talents. It trained many Islamic staff and scholars, including some influential poets, writers, historians and translators, and had a certain influence in the religious circles at home and abroad. 【Panlong Ancient Road】 The Panlong Ancient Road is located in Taxkorgan Tajik Autonomous County, Kashgar Prefecture, with a total length of 75 kilometers, of which 36 kilometers has more than 600 S-shaped and U-shaped curves. The highway passes through the Kunlun Mountains, with towering snow-capped mountains and crisscrossed ravines along the way. 【Ancient City】 The ancient city of Kashgar has experienced more than 2,000 years of wind, frost, snow and rain, making the ancient city of Kashgar a specimen and slice of different historical periods. It is known as a living fossil for the study of ancient cities in the Western Regions. It is also the most valuable, influential and representative historical and cultural city for the study of ancient Silk Road culture. The ancient city is an open tourist attraction and the living area of Uyghur residents, where the family life, ethnic customs, traditional handicrafts, and delicious food of Uyghur residents are concentratedly displayed. 【Xiang Fei's Tomb】 The scenic spot tells the legendary story of Xiang Fei from birth to death, from Kashgar to Beijing, from Princess Xiang Xiang to the one who was loved by millions from three aspects: hometown, former residence and old friends. Happy Xiangfei Garden, a love check-in place, where you will have an in-depth understanding of Xiangfei' s love story. Experience the unique style and folk culture of Kashgar from up close. Breakfast: Hotel buffet Lunch: Chinese dishes Dinner: Northwest Sichuan and Hunan cuisine

Big Temple, Kuqa Palace, Kizilga Beacon Tower] 【Kizil Thousand Buddha Caves】 The Kizil Thousand Buddha Cave Grottoes were first excavated in the late 3rd century AD and gradually declined in the late 8th century. The art of Kizil Thousand Buddha Caves is a trinity of comprehensive art including caves, sculptures and murals, forming a unique Kucha style. From it, we can get a glimpse of the development, spread and evolution of ancient Buddhist art in China. It is of special value for studying the history of Chinese Buddhism, art history, art theory and the social history of ancient Kucha. In addition to religious content, there are many scenes showing farming, hunting, business travel, music and dance, and ethnic customs. The Kizil Thousand Buddha Caves are backed by Mingwudage Mountain and bordered by the Weigan River to the south. It is the earliest and largest Kolulu Grotto Temple complex in China. It is also a typical representative of the Buddhist art of the ancient Qiuci Kingdom. It is as famous as the Dunhuang Mogao Grottoes and can be called the "Second Dunhuang in China". It is known for its beautiful murals. 【Kuqa Old Town】 Kuqa Old Town is a national historical and cultural city, and most of its residents are Uighurs. The ancient buildings in the city not only absorb the cultural elements and architectural styles of the Central Plains and Europe, but also integrate the traditional architecture, painting, singing and dancing arts of the Western Regions, and still retain the traditional pattern and historical style. 【Kuqa

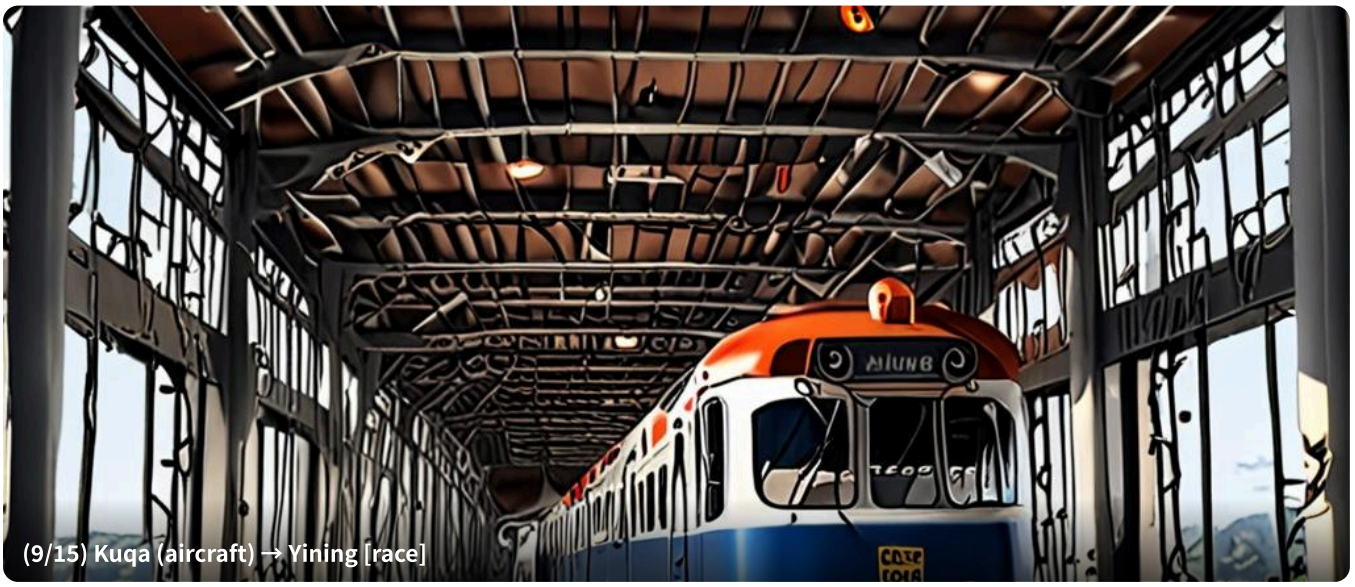

Temple】 The main body is made of brick and wood. The temple's appearance is tall, majestic, simple and elegant, showing a high level of craftsmanship, especially the decorations similar to auspicious clouds both indoors and outdoors. They are often seen in ancient buildings in the Central Plains of China. They beautify the gaps between beams and columns and have auspicious meanings, which fully proves the influx of architectural culture from the Central Plains. The Kuqa Temple covers an area of about 1,165 square meters. The main building is divided into two parts: the main body of the temple and the main hall for believers to worship. Kuqa Temple, whether it is the architectural type of the religious court, the unique artistic shape of the gate tower, the structural system of the worship hall, or the design of the architectural details, are relatively rare objects of architectural art, especially the brick carvings, wood carvings, and paintings that express the architectural details, which are of profound significance to the study of architectural decorative art in the Western Regions. 【Kuqa Palace】 The full name of Kuqa Hereditary Prince's Palace is located on Linji Road, Kuqa City, Aksu Prefecture, Xinjiang Uygur Autonomous Region. It was built by Emperor Qianlong of the Qing Dynasty in the 24th year of the Qianlong reign of the Qing Dynasty (1759) in order to commend the local Uyghur leader E Dui for his contribution in quelling the Hezhuo rebellion. The Kuqa Palace Tourist Area covers an area of 40,000 square meters and combines palaces from the Central Plains of China and Islamic style. It mainly consists of the Royal Palace Exhibition Area, Kucha Museum Exhibition Area, Ancient City Wall and other exhibition areas. Through the display of cultural relics, introduction of family history and special food, Kuqa Palace allows you to understand the 190-year historical life of the 12 generations of hereditary "King of Kuqa". 【Kizilga Beacon Tower】 It is located on the impact platform at the mouth of Yanyangou at the southern foot of Qoletage Mountain, with an altitude of 1,200 meters. The existing remaining height is 13.5 meters, the length from east to west is about 6.5 meters, and the width from north to south is 4.5 meters. The Kizilgaha Beacon Tower is the earliest and best-preserved site on the North Silk Road. It is located in a prime location on the North Silk Road, with superior location conditions and high cultural and tourism value. Breakfast: Hotel buffet Lunch: Chinese mixed dishes Dinner: Sour soup and local hotpot flavor

Old Town Kazanqi Folk Village (Old Town Style), Six Star Street] 【Sailim Lake】 Sailimu Lake was called "Pure Sea" in ancient times. There were no fish in Sailimu Lake originally. In 1998, cold-water fish such as whitefish and concave whitefish were introduced from Russia for breeding. In 2000, finished fish were caught for the first time, ending the history of Sailimu Lake not producing fish. After ten years of development, it has become an important cold-water fish production base in Xinjiang. The Sailimu Lake Scenic Area is divided into 6 functional areas: the scenic area around the lake, the nomadic grassland area, the ecological landscape conservation area, the swan and other rare bird habitat protection area, the comprehensive tourism service area, and the original ecological environment preservation area. Three special protection areas have been identified: the water body in the central core of Sailimu Lake, the West Sea Swan Wetland meadow water body habitat, and the Chagan Gol Ice and Snow Ecological Adventure Scenic Area. [Old Town Kazanqi Folk Village] Kazanqi Folk Tourism Area is located in the old town of Yining City. It is a historical and cultural district that integrates multi-ethnic customs and traditional architecture. A large number of characteristic houses of Uyghur, Kazakh, Xibe, Tatar and other ethnic groups have been preserved here. The colorful exterior walls, carved wooden windows and cobblestone paths interweave into an exotic picture. Wandering there, you can not only appreciate handicrafts and taste local delicacies, but also gain an in-depth understanding of the life and culture of Yili's diverse ethnic groups. It is one of the most representative tourist cards of Yining. 【Six Star Street】 An ancient neighborhood in Yining City, Ili Prefecture, Xinjiang, outside the Great Wall of China, was built in the mid-1930s (1934-1936). It was planned and designed by the German engineer Vasili in accordance with the six major policies (anti-imperialism, pro-Soviet, ethnic equality, peace, construction, and corruption) promoted by the Xinjiang Provincial Government at that time. The block is circular in plan, with six main roads radiating outward from the center, dividing the block into six fan-shaped areas. The center is occupied by public buildings such as schools, shops, and mosques, and the periphery is occupied by residential areas, forming a unique residential model. 【Nalati Grassland】 Nalati Grassland - is known as the "Deer Park". "Waterways of the Western Regions" says that "several springs gush out and form rivers, and there are many deer there, so it is called the Deer Circle." "Xinjiang Illustrated Chronicles" also records that "there is a beast that looks like a child and is good at crying and laughing, and it is called ape." A variety of medicinal herbs are also distributed among the dense pastures such as dragon grass. After June every year, large groups of livestock move in, entering the prime season of the grassland. The Nalati Grassland is a subalpine meadow plant area, one of the four largest grasslands in the world. It has rich vegetation and is a mountain meadow with lush thin-stemmed iris groups. Other companion species mainly include tangerine, false gentian, carex, wheatgrass, fescue, strawberry and thyme. There is also horsetail, which belongs to the subphylum Equisetaceae of the subphylum Cuneifolia. Breakfast: Hotel buffet Lunch: Chinese dishes Dinner: Kazakh style meal

Kuitun→Wurhe[Baili Oil Field, Ke No. 1 Well Scenic Area (Big Oil Bubble Sculpture), Urho Devil City] 【Baili Oilfield】 The Karamay Oilfield was the first large oil field discovered in 1955 after the liberation of China. "Karamay" is the transliteration of "black oil" in Uyghur. It was named after the discovery site of Karamay oil field. It is now a natural asphalt hill in the east corner of Karamay city - Black Oil Mountain. [Ke No. 1 Well Scenic Area (Big Oil Bubble Sculpture)] Karamay Well No. 1 is the first well born in the Karamay Oilfield in Xinjiang. On June 6, 1955, the Dushanzi 1219 Youth Drilling Team came to the vicinity of Heiyou Mountain to determine the location of Well No. 1. Drilling started on July 6 of the same year, and the well depth was 626 meters. On October 29, industrial oil flow was spewed out after completion of drilling, with an initial daily crude oil production of 3.7 tons, which became a symbol of the discovery of the Karamay Oil Field. Since then, the Karamay Oilfield has become the largest oilfield discovered, developed and constructed after the founding of New China. 【Urhe Devil City】 Whenever the wind blows, strange roars will be emitted here, so it is called the Devil City. The World Devil City is at the center of the wind, with the maximum wind force reaching level 10-12. It is one of the important "check-in places" on the northern Xinjiang tourist circuit. It integrates natural landscapes such as desert canyon, rocky beach Populus euphratica, natural asphalt, sunrise rosy clouds, mirages and other natural landscapes. It has tourism resources such as oil field experience areas, rock euphemisms, and natural asphalt veins. It is the origin of Xinjiang gold silk jade, a treasure of the Silk Road. color), fish viewing platform (high platform overlooking the distance)] 【Kanas Scenic Area】 Jiadengyu is the only gateway to Kanas Scenic Area in Xinjiang. It is located in the north of Burqin County. It is the transportation distribution center and tourist accommodation center for entering Kanas. Surrounded by mountains and green trees, this place is a typical alpine forest area and a must-visit place when visiting Kanas. From Jiadeng Valley, go deep into the core area of Kanas, and enjoy classic scenic spots such as Shenxian Bay, Wolong Bay, and Moon Bay. The water of Kanas Lake is as clear as a mirror, surrounded by mountains and dense forests. It displays brilliant colors as the seasons change, especially in autumn, which is known as "the most beautiful autumn in China". Jiadengyu itself is also a quiet valley town with many hotels, B&Bs and restaurants. It is an ideal place for travelers to get ready, spend the night and enjoy the starry sky. 【Kanas Lake】 It is one of the most beautiful mountain lakes in China. It is known as the "color-changing lake" because the lake changes color with the seasons, weather and light. The lake is arch-shaped, about 24 kilometers long, with a deepest depth of 188.5 meters. It is surrounded by mountains and densely forested. It is the only lake in China that flows into the Arctic Ocean water system. Kanas Lake has different scenery throughout the year. In autumn, it is golden and gorgeous, making it a photographer's paradise; in winter, it is covered with silver and is like a dream. This is also where the Tuva people live, retaining the unique national culture and wooden house style, allowing travelers to not only indulge in the natural beauty, but also feel the baptism of cultural atmosphere. 【Fish Viewing Platform】 Built at an altitude of 2,030 meters on the top of Mount Harakat (Mongolian meaning "Camel's Peak"), the vertical drop from the lake is more than 600 meters. Because it is in the best position to observe "lake monsters", it is named Fish Viewing Pavilion. The Fish Viewing Pavilion is the best of the scenic spots in Kanas, and it is also the only best platform to stop and enjoy the beautiful scenery of Kanas.
