Today's meal	Breakfast: Hotel buffet Lunch: Seafood meal Dinner: at your own expense
Today's accommodation	DE SOL HOTEL 5* or similar

After breakfast at the hotel, head to the highest point on Santorini to admire the crescent-shaped island (where you can have a panoramic view of the active volcanic island across the sea from Santorini, which is a paradise for photographers). On the way back, you will pass by the village of Pigos (there are 49 Greek Orthodox churches within one square kilometer but retain the tradition of only one missionary) - and then go to the south to overlook the special geographical landscape. 【Red Beach】 (Due to the dangerous mountain road, the Red Beach is only for distant viewing and taking photos, and it is prohibited to go down to the beach). This terrain contains a large amount of iron and manganese, which turns into a unique red rock terrain due to oxidation. Then head to the famous 【Black Beach】 KAMARA BEACH, enjoy playing in the Aegean Sea (this place is created by unique volcanic geology, with volcanic rock and volcanic ash deposits mixed with white sand. The sand looks black and the water looks black, but the sea water is cool, clean, and has beauty effects).

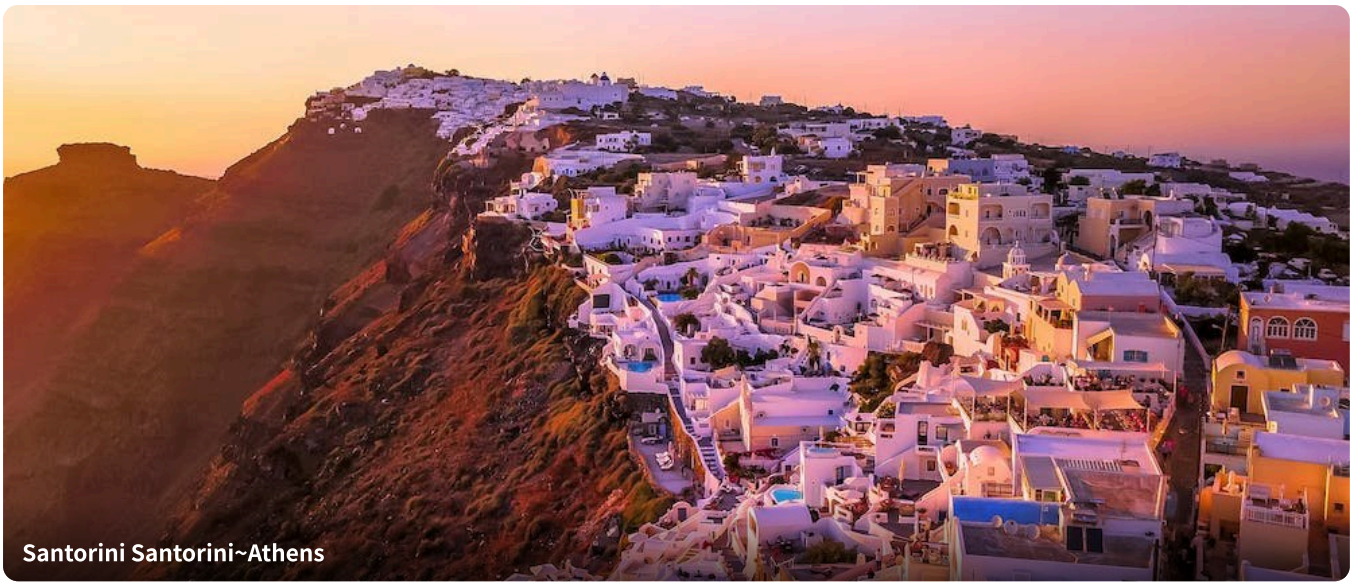

After lunch, transfer to the town of Fira. The town of Fira is built on 587 steps from the seaside on the island. Looking from the town, you can see the blue-roofed and white-walled church in front of you. The scenery is very fascinating. Here you can be like the hero and heroine in "The Sea of Love" and find a Greek-style B&B coffee to rest and talk.
