"Kuala Lumpur Tower" (KL Tower Observation Deck (OD), others not included) is a tall tower located in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. The tower is 421 meters (1381 feet) high. When it was built in 1995, it was the fourth tallest tower in the world. It still ranks seventh in 2020. Together with the neighboring Petronas Twin Towers, it is the landmark and symbol of Kuala Lumpur. The Kuala Lumpur Tower is located on Coffee Hill. It is mainly used as a communication tower and is open for tourists to visit. Go to the Petronas Twin Towers (exterior) to take photos and check in. Exterior palace[Visit the Kuala Lumpur Independence Square, located in front of the Sultan Abdul Samad Building in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Although the origin of the name "Ghost Lane" has not been officially recorded, it has nothing to do with ghosts. Local old neighbors said the name came from the elders calling the children playing in the alleys on rainy days "ghost boy". Over time, nearby residents called that lane Guizai Lane. Administrative Center of Malaysia - Putra City, appearance of the Prime Minister's Office, [Pink Water Mosque]Three-quarters of the main building is built on the water. Its appearance is pink, which is different from the ordinary blue or green, so it is also called the "Pink Mosque on the Water."

These two business districts are home to the largest concentration of shopping malls, hotels and commercial buildings in Malaysia. They are also the main tourist attractions in Kuala Lumpur. Many office workers, shoppers and tourists come in and out of these two places every day.

D7 9/9(three) Kuala Lumpur - Bali, Indonesia (estimated arrival at 13:00) - Pandawa Beach > Cliff Sea View Highway (use the shuttle bus to enter) > Uluwatu Lover's Cliff - Jimbaran Beach

Today's meal	Breakfast: included Lunch:- dinner:-
Today's accommodation	Bali 5* Hotel Nikko Bali Benoa Beach or similar

After breakfast, take a flight to Bali, Indonesia, and pick up the plane.

Pandawa Beach, Cliff Sea View Highway, Uluwatu Lover's Cliff.

Pandawa Beach has soft white sand and gentle sea water. The stone walls on both sides of the entrance are engraved with statues of epic characters from the Mahabharata.

The Cliff Sea View Road, which drives along the southern coastline and offers stunning views of the Indian Ocean, is one of the most beautiful roads in Bali.

Uluwatu Temple is a Tanah Lot temple built on a 70-meter-high cliff. It is one of the six main temples in Bali.

Historical background: Founded in the 11th century, it is an important religious holy place in Bali and is used to protect the southern end of the island from maritime disasters.

Jimbaran Beach was originally a traditional fishing village and is now famous for its sunset views and coastal scenery.

Ubud Art Market sells wood carvings, silver jewelry, rattan weaving, textiles and other handicrafts in the city. It is an ideal place to experience local folk customs and buy souvenirs.

D8 9/10(Four) Wat Lempuyang - Sky Gate >Tirta Gangga > Taman Ujung

Today's meal	Breakfast: included Lunch:- dinner:-
Today's accommodation	Bali 5* Hotel Nikko Bali Benoa Beach or similar

Lempuyang Temple - Gate to the Sky at the foot of Mount Agung, the famous "The Gate of Heaven", through which you can overlook Mount Agung. The huge Gate of Good and Evil with Mount Agung as the background is like an entrance to heaven, making this place also known as the Gate of Heaven. Wat Lien Puyang is located on Mount Lien Puyang. There are 7 temples on the mountain. It is currently one of the tallest and oldest temple groups in Bali. It is one of the most popular photo spots in Bali. Thiel

Tirta Gangga - is a palace garden built in 1946 by the royal family members of the "Kingdom of Karangasem". Tirta in its name refers to holy water, and Gangga refers to the Ganges River in India. This is also the origin of its other Chinese name "Ganges Holy Spring Garden". This palace garden was almost completely destroyed when Mount Agung erupted in 1963, but it was rebuilt and restored in modern times. The most eye-catching thing here is its pool landscaping, which looks like a magical water park. The Royal Water Garden of the Ganges, with pools, koi carps, fountains and exquisite stone sculptures

Taman Ujung - also known as the Great Water Palace in Bali, was built in 1919 by Dutch and Chinese architects, and was completed in 1926 before Indonesia's independence. It combines Balinese, Dutch, and European-style royal gardens, and combines architecture with water features. It can be regarded as a unique building that combines Chinese and Western styles.
