Breakfast on the cruise, and after disembarking, drive to Sognefjord, the king of Norwegian fjords. The Sognefjord, which is 200 kilometers long and 1,300 meters deep, is the longest and deepest fjord in the world and a unique landscape. Norway 【Norway Sognefjord Cruise】 Take a cruise to admire Sognefjord, known as the "King of Fjords" and the longest and deepest fjord in the world. The fresh and crisp air and rippling blue water, as well as taking a boat to swim in the winding fjords. If you are lucky, you may see seals poking their heads to greet tourists. The miraculous work of nature is best interpreted here. The long coastline is cut into jagged shapes by the waves of the North Sea. The water as narrow as a finger squeezes out a path and flows from the fjord into the inland hills, where countless waterfalls, large and small, pour and rush. The majestic and splendid fjord scenery composed of endless winding fjords and countless glacial ruins will make you unforgettable.

Then go to the fjord town to check into the hotel and have dinner in the hotel.

Remarks: The mountain roads in the fjord area are rugged, so it is rare to see restaurants while driving. Please understand that lunch is simple!
