Today, we specially arranged to take the Golden Pass Line, a scenic train with the latest 21st century technology, streamlined appearance, comfortable and spacious, to Montreal. It gathers the essence of Swiss scenery, spanning two language regions, eight lakes, and three mountain passes. Grape hillsides on both sides, lovely and freehand residences, beautiful Lake Leimeng, and another kind of Swiss railway scenery. On the way you can fully appreciate and experience the beauty of the world's parks. Montreal is the most popular lakeside resort in the area and also Tchaikovsky's favorite city. The proximity to Leimeng Lake and the suitable climate make this place very poetic and picturesque. The vineyards on the nearby hillsides are also beautiful. Go to visit Chillon Castle, one of the top ten castles in Europe. It is one of the most representative castles in Switzerland. It was built more than a thousand years ago. It coexists with the water and light of Lake Lemond day and night, giving people the dreamlike visual effect of the castle being built in the water.
